

WINGMAN SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Bob “Nunndog” Nunnally

Colonel Bob “Nunndog” Nunnally, US Air Force (retired), is a decorated combat fighter pilot, experienced business consultant, and successful CEO who teaches leaders and organizations how to build winning teams and execute Top Gun business strategies. Presenting tools and techniques on preparation, courage, and accountability, he shares how he leveraged his extensive military training to survive the heat of battle and lead teams to success in business.

During Nunndog’s Air Force career, he led large, multi-national combat missions in Europe and also served as a senior mentor for leadership and ethics training for the Air Force and the Department of Defense.

After retiring from the Air Force, Nunndog joined Toffler Associates® where he coached CEOs in the aerospace, defense, telecommunications and IT sectors on defining and pursuing new multi-billion dollar market opportunities, developing innovative workforce partnerships and implementing new organizational structures.

As CEO of Balaya®, a social media software company, Nunndog used wingman techniques and philosophies to grow an “idea on a napkin” into a patent pending product and an award winning business.

Nunndog earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology and History from the University of Georgia and a Master of Science degree in Aeronautical Sciences from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. Additionally, he is an honor graduate of Air Force Air Command and Staff College and the Air War College. He is the author of numerous leadership and educational articles, and is active in his community and numerous business networks.
